

Status: Full Time (one semester or one-year appointment)

Mitchell Hamline School of Law is seeking candidates for visiting faculty positions beginning in August 2019 or January 2020. These are one-semester or one-year full-time, teaching positions.

Our principal curricular needs include property, commercial law, business associations (business organizations), family law. We are open to considering outstanding candidates with other areas of expertise. We are especially interested in candidates with demonstrated experience and/or interest in teaching a blended (on-campus and online) learning program, and who would be interested in teaching in one of our own blended learning programs. For more information about these programs, please visit www.mitchellhamline.edu and read more about our Hybrid J.D., Executive J.D., and Weekend programs.

Candidates are required to have a J.D. from an ABA-accredited law school or foreign equivalent degree. Rank and compensation subject to individual qualifications and experience. Distinguished academic and/or professional background expected. We particularly encourage candidates of color, women, people of any sexual orientation, veterans, and persons with disabilities to apply.

The Faculty Appointments Committee requests that interested candidates submit a letter of application and a current résumé. While the Committee will continue to consider applications until the positions are filled, candidates should submit their application materials as soon as possible for full committee consideration.

For questions about the application process, please contact Professor Mehmet Konar-Steenberg at mehmet.konar-steenberg@mitchellhamline.edu.

To apply please send cover letter and resume by e-mail to hr@mitchellhamline.edu; by fax to (651) 290-8645; or by mail to Human Resources, Mitchell Hamline School of Law, 875 Summit Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55105.

Members of under-represented groups are encouraged to apply. AA/EOE.
